

David Levinstein

B. 1935, Russia

1946 Immigrated with the family to Poland, where studied engineering.

1958 Immigrated to Israel and settled in Jerusalem. Has worked as an engineer for the Government of Israel, until retirement. Holds additional degrees from Technion in Haifa, Israel and from Stanford University in California. Since early age interested in drawing and painting. Worked and studied as an autodidact.

1977-80 Participated in evening classes in the Artists House and the Bezalel Academy in Jerusalem, where has studied with Sh. Factor, J. Byle, T. Berlinsky and M. Kovner.

At present: lives in Mazkeret Batya; involved in painting, drawing, and sculpture (abstract) in wood.

Exhibitions

- 1969 Gallery Z.O.A., Tel-Aviv (exhib. "Jugs", pastel on paper).
- 1983 Sieff and Marks Commun. Center, Beith Hakerem, Jerusalem.
- 1992 "The New Members", Beith Haomanim, Jerusalem.
- 1992 "Flash", Beith Haomanim, Jerusalem (curator: D. Gerstein).
- 1994 "In Need of Art", Ashdod Museum and Beith Haomanim, Jerusalem.
- 1997 "Myths of Israel", Artaddiction Gall. , Stockholm.
- 1998 Kye College Gall., Beer Sheva (curator: R. Kroup).
- 2000 Exhib. at Beck Science Center, Jerusalem (2nd prize).
- 2005 "Flowers' Field", Painters & Sculptors Assoc. , Tel Aviv.
- 2005 "Flowers' Field", Beith Haomanim, Jerusalem.

Represented in Yad Vashem Museum in Jerusalem, and in private collections in Switzerland, Israel, Canada, the Netherlands and the USA.