

Debbie Kampel

Born in Johannesburg, South Africa, living in Israel since 1974. Majored in Fine Art, History of Art and English at the University of Witwatersrand in Johannesburg. Completed an M.A Cum Laude at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Studied at Bezalel School of Art under painters Pinhas Cohen-Gan and Michael Kovner; lithography with Dedi Ben-Shaul. Previously taught art at Kaye College and Emunah College.

Solo exhibitions

- 2002 Yeshiva University Museum, New York
- 1999 ICC Jerusalem Convention Center, Jerusalem
Jerusalem Center for the Performing Arts, Jerusalem
- 1996 "Strong Hills", Sara Kishon Gallery, Tel-Aviv
- 1993 Paintings, Jerusalem Theatre, Jerusalem
- 1990 Views of Judean Hills, Sara Kishon Gallery, Tel-Aviv
- 1987 Hills of Jerusalem; Nora Gallery, Jerusalem

Group Shows

- 2002 Israel Museum, Jerusalem
- 2000 Aim for Arts International Exhibition, Vancouver, Canada
Landscapes, Artists House, Jerusalem
- 1996 Triennial "Sofia '96"
- 1995 "Art '95", New York
- 1992 Biennale d'Art Contemporain des Pays Francophones, Senart, France
- 1987 Jerusalem Observed by Israeli Artists", Israel Festival
- 1986 Telfed Arts Festival", Yad Lebanim Museum, Herzliah